Early Christmas for Patients at Annotto Bay Hospital

Patients at the Annotto Bay Hospital received an early Christmas treat in true Jamaican style on December 20, 2011. A Christmas dinner, organized by the management and staff of the facility had many persons dancing, clapping, singing and literally begging for more.

Entertainment was provided by a group of singers headed by the renowned Karen Smith and Dimario McDowell, who belted out local and international favourites including Ernie Smith's, 'All for Jesus'. Adding to the yuletide enchantment of the evening; a patient gave a hearty rendition of a carol that would have rivaled any world famous tenor.

Patients were served a sumptuous traditional Jamaican dinner of five star quality replete with sorrel drink. After the meal, Dimario McDowell in true cabaret style serenaded four retirees much to their delight with his stirring and soulful rendition of Skylark's, 'Wildflower'. The entertainment package was concluded with Karen and Dimario's harmonious acappella singing of Celine Dion and Josh Groban's, 'The Prayer'.

The Senior Medical Officer, Dr Ray Fraser commended the staff for their commitment and dedication to patient care and the Chief Executive Officer, Miss Arlene Mighty brought season's greetings. Several clients expressed their gratitude for the services rendered and invoked God's blessing on the staff. Dr Nadine Bourg of the Annotto Bay Hospital thanked Karen Smith and Dimario McDowell and their team for their kind gesture on the hospital's behalf.
